PARKS and PLANNING COMMITTEE

Purpose:

The purpose of the Parks and Planning Committee is to develop a master plan for the physical development of parks and recreational facilities, and provide general supervision of parks and recreational facilities.

Membership:

The Parks and Planning Committee consist of two council members (one of the council members is the chairperson), the Parks and Planning Director, and two citizen members.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Makes and adopts a master plan for the physical development of parks and recreation centers.
- Accepts gifts of money or property or purchases property for park expansion or recreational facility development.
- Provides general supervision of recreation in the City.
- Operates and maintains all community recreation centers.
- Ensures all income from recreation activities are submitted to the City Treasurer.
- Establishes fees and adopts rules and regulations for the proper use, care, and operation of the property under its control.
- Decides the location and architectural design of any public building; the location of any statue or other memorial.