Grow and thrive with Continuing Studies this summer

Warm sunshine, blooming flowers, juicy garden tomatoes: Summer is a time of growth and abundance in the natural world. It’s also the perfect time to grow personally and professionally—and Continuing Studies is just the place to do it.

Cultivate your creativity with our art, music, and writing classes. Examine your roots in our history and humanities programs, or explore another culture through an educational trip or language course. Help your career thrive with our professional development courses, workshops, and conferences. There are so many choices and so many ways to grow.

Best of all, our programs are for everyone. No matter who you are, where you’re from, or how much growing you’ve done already, Continuing Studies will help you accomplish your goals and enjoy yourself along the way. That’s what lifelong learning is all about. Won’t you join us?

Are you a winner?

The winners of our latest lifelong learning giveaway have been announced! See who won and enter the summer giveaway at go.wisc.edu/summer2018.

Learner spotlight

“If you’ve hit a low point in your craft, the Writers’ Institute will reinvigorate you. It’s like a shot of adrenaline. Presenters are experts in the industry, willing to share the good, the bad, and the ugly.”

—I am Marianne Flynn Statz, and I’m a lifelong learner
WIN AN EXCLUSIVE FARM-TO-TABLE EXPERIENCE WITH AUTHOR JERRY APPS

Enter our summer contest for a chance to explore Wisconsin food, farms, and folklore with Jerry Apps and Susan Apps-Bodilly, coauthors of Old Farm Country Cookbook.

An accomplished writer, historian, and retired UW-Madison professor, Jerry grew up on a Wisconsin farm in the 1930s and ’40s, when times were tough and food was the ultimate comfort. Winners will hear how Jerry and his daughter, Susan, a local teacher, work together to pair fantastic food with unforgettable stories. The duo will also share tales from the farm and discuss the cookbook’s recipes, which range from German-style sauerkraut to old-fashioned cherry pie.

This one-of-a-kind event also features:
- A catered luncheon complete with salads, hotdishes, and desserts from the cookbook
- A book signing
- Views of the beautiful UW Arboretum
- Conversation with fellow lifelong learners

We’ll select 20 winners on May 28. Each may bring one guest to the event, which takes place Saturday, July 7, noon-2pm, at the UW Arboretum in Madison.

Find contest rules and submit your entry by May 14 at go.wisc.edu/summer2018. Good luck!
