Instructors

David Mays (MD, PhD) is a forensic psychiatrist and directed the forensic program at the Mendota Mental Health Institute in Madison, WI, for 13 years. He serves on the clinical faculty at UW–Madison. Dr. Mays is the recipient of the Exemplary Psychiatrist Award from the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, the Distinguished Service Award from the Alliance for the Mentally Ill of Dane County, and the Exceptional Performance Award from the Wisconsin Dept of Health and Family Services. He has treated patients in hospital and outpatient settings with comorbid substance use problems for 20 years. He is a seasoned clinician and highly sought after presenter.

Jeanne Wagner (MSW, LCSW, ACSW) joined the staff at the UWM Helen Bader School of Social Welfare in May 2005 as the director of Social Work Field Education Programs. She received her MSW from Jane Addams College of Social Work, Chicago, and her BSW from Morehead State University, Morehead, Kentucky. She has worked in a variety of social service settings: child welfare, adoption, mental health, cognitive disabilities, geriatrics, substance abuse, and private practice. She currently teaches courses in social work and develops and presents continuing education programs covering social work ethics and boundaries, leadership and supervision, case management, and safety in the field.

Doug Smith (MA, MSc, MDiv) is a professional speaker, trainer, and consultant with more than 25 years of experience as a counselor, therapist, and health care administrator. He has written The Tao of Dying, Being a Wounded Healer, and several other books.

Susan Dolan (RN, JD) is a nurse and an attorney, and has practiced health care and corporate law. Susan began her hospice career as a volunteer in 1995 at what is now Agrace HospiceCare in Madison, WI. She co-founded Angels Grace Hospice in Illinois in 2011. Susan co-authored (with her mother) The End of Life Advisor: Personal, Legal and Medical Considerations for a Peaceful, Dignified Death (Kaplan, 2009), an American Journal of Nursing 2009 Book of the Year award winner.
New! Ethics and Boundaries in the World of Technology—Updated NASW Technology Standards of Practice

December 7, 2018; 9am-2pm; $165

- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 4 hours (0.4 CEU)
- January 24, 2019; 9am-4pm; $180
- October 22, 2018; 9am-4pm; $180
- Case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Develop skills to assess ethical/philosophical/religious languages and speak that language
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Recognize the unconscious, yet persuasive nature of making moral choices
- Explore the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- Explain the role ethical decision making plays in determining moral responsibility
- Appraise the importance of ethical behavior in a world of emerging technology and social media
- Identify the ethical responsibilities of counselors through the lens of new technology standards
- Compare models for the ethical decision-making process
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals.
- The management of ethics, boundaries, and confidentiality in a world of constantly emerging technology and social media is especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: Legal and Professional Challenges in Documentation, Risk Assessment, and Telemedicine
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Recognize how telemedicine is affecting mental health care
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: Biological Roots and Challenges of the New Genetics
- October 22, 2018; 9am-4pm; $180
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Identify the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- Ethical decision making is based upon what is right or wrong, good or bad in a particular situation. Because the ethical and legal issues are often are found with complex and emotionally charged cases that require careful choice-making and ethical decision-making for professionals and help to protect patients and colleagues fairly assess ethical decisions at the end of the workshop.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Explain the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: What Is Black and White—Ethics and End of Life
- February 22, 2019; 9am-2pm (boxed lunch included); $175
- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 4 hours (0.4 CEU)
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Discuss how consent matters may conflict with professional codes of ethics
- Ethical decision making is based upon what is right or wrong, good or bad in a particular situation. Because the ethical and legal issues are often found with complex and emotionally charged cases that require careful choice-making and ethical decision-making for professionals and help to protect patients and colleagues fairly assess ethical decisions at the end of the workshop.
- Explore the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- Ethical decision making is based upon what is right or wrong, good or bad in a particular situation. Because the ethical and legal issues are often found with complex and emotionally charged cases that require careful choice-making and ethical decision-making for professionals and help to protect patients and colleagues fairly assess ethical decisions at the end of the workshop.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Explain the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- Some are not and how our brains complicate efforts to solve moral dilemmas. We will also discuss boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- Principles in this context: informed consent, confidentiality, right to refuse treatment, provider professionalism must adhere to. This workshop is about the relationship between legislative and professional ethics and professional boundaries. We will also discuss boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- In this workshop we will focus on each professional code for addressing possible future dilemmas related to professional ethics and professional boundaries. We will also discuss boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 4 hours (0.4 CEU)
- In this workshop we will focus on each professional code for addressing possible future dilemmas related to professional ethics and professional boundaries. We will also discuss boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Describe the differences between a privacy standard and a confidentiality standard
- Explain the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- Ethical decision making is based upon what is right or wrong, good or bad in a particular situation. Because the ethical and legal issues are often found with complex and emotionally charged cases that require careful choice-making and ethical decision-making for professionals and help to protect patients and colleagues fairly assess ethical decisions at the end of the workshop.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Explain the five steps of the ethical decision making process
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: Challenges in Documentation, Risk Assessment, and Telemedicine
- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 4 hours (0.4 CEU)
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Develop skills to assess ethical/philosophical/religious languages and speak that language
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: Challenges in Documentation, Risk Assessment, and Telemedicine
- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 4 hours (0.4 CEU)
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- New! Ethics and Boundaries: Legal and Professional Challenges in Documentation, Risk Assessment, and Telemedicine
- Level: Intermediate; CE Credits: 6 hours (0.6 CEU)
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.
- This workshop is designed to help you:
- Process and resolve several case studies involving issues of ethics and boundaries
- Develop a list of personal criteria and strategies to use when confronted with any ethical dilemma
- Ethical issues and boundaries that are consistent with a world of constantly emerging technology and social media are especially challenging for human service professionals. This workshop will provide a survey of boundary issues involved with working with electronic records, as well as providing practical guidance on how to document suicide and violence risk.